

Entering your first Dog Show

Mini-Seminar presented by Robin Nuttall and Barbara Petty

April 17, 2010, 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and 1:00 to 2:00 p.m.
Columbia Canine Sports Center meeting room and arena

New to dog showing? Or have you entered a trial or two but found yourself unprepared? This mini-seminar will give you the basic tools you need to start yourself and your dog on a successful and stress free path to success. Robin has over 20 years experience in showing dogs in Obedience, Rally, Agility and breed in AKC, UKC, ASCA, NADAC and more. Barb has earned multiple titles, including MACHs and high level obedience titles on several dogs in AKC, USDAA, ASCA, UKC and more.

From 9:00 to noon Robin Nuttall will cover:

- Assessing the team for readiness
- Rules and regulations
- How and where to find trials
- When to enter and deadlines
- Filling Out Entry Forms
- What to take to the trial
- What to do when you get to the trial
- Dealing with Ring Nerves
- What to do when things go wrong
- Sportsmanship

At 1:00 p.m., Barb Petty will conduct a hands-on strategic walkthrough of an actual Novice agility course, including when and how to set up, visualization, memorization, and more!

The focus of this mini-seminar will be AKC, however other venues can also be reviewed upon request. It will be especially helpful to new competitors in agility, rally, and obedience. Registrants will receive handouts with helpful tips to take home. Lunch will be on your own.
